Ascension Scanlations
Officially Reopening
Hello guys b[illegible] a while... Been busy with a lot of stuff. And well I was just feeling in the mood to do some scanlating since a couple of months now because I got some extra free time. Well... just like the title says, we're back. Unfortunately I'm not promising I'll be releasing a lot of chapters anytime soon, or that I will release fast since I'm alone. I'm thinking of restarting some/most of the projects I had and once I finish those even start new ones. But I m looking for staff - all positions: cleaners, redrawers, typesetters, translators (french, chinese, japanese, korean to english). If anyone wants to apply you can do so by contacting me (Necrophagia) on my channel on irchighway or by posting on the group forum in the recruiting threads
